Master 2024-25: Phillipa White

Dear Friends

This is your chance to banish the January Blues by joining us on a Private Wine Tasting unlike any you will have been to before, followed by early supper on Saturday 11 January 2025.

We plan to meet at Blackhorse Rd Underground Station on the Victoria Line at 3.30pm for the short journey to the Renegade Urban Winery, Unit 7, Lockwood Way, London E17 5RB. Those of you who would rather drive will find ample parking there.

Renegade buys top-quality, hand-harvested grapes from vineyards around the UK and Europe to make premium, modern style wines. Only started in 2016, their wines are now featured in various Michelin starred London restaurants such as Hide and Frog by Adam Handling.

One of their unusual features is to celebrate the diversity of people in the UK by having each wine label showing a photo of the eyes of a different person, many of them Londoners. Anyone can apply to be on the labels so if you would like your picture on a bottle of wine just ask at the winery. Renegade also names their wines after their customers.

Afterwards we will have a Tapas style supper comprising artisan cheese & charcuterie or hummus & olives with sourdough bread with a little more of our favourite wines to wash it down. The cost of both the wine tasting & supper is £60 per person.

Please let me know by Friday 20 December if you plan to join us.

Many thanks & kind regards
